San Lorenzo Valley Water District Board of Directors Appoints Lew Farris to the Board

MAY 23, 2019 — BOULDER CREEK, CA — The San Lorenzo Valley Water District (SLVWD) Board of Directors has announced that Lew Farris was appointed to the Board at the regular Board meeting on Thursday, May 2, 2019.

The Board of Directors posted a Notice of Vacancy on the Board April 5, 2019 after the resignation of Margaret Bruce. This Notice was posted throughout the Valley until April 24, 2019 pursuant to Government Code §1780.

The appointment of Lew Farris will be for the term ending when the December 2020 election results are certified. The seat will go to election in November 2020 for a new 4-year term.

Director Farris, a Felton resident, is retired from the biotech industry where he was responsible for operational procedures of high volume, high quality water for manufacturing plants all over the world. Additionally, he was responsible manufacturing using tanks, pipes and pumps.

Director Farris has served on the SLVWD Citizen Action Committee in 2014 and on the Engineering Committee as a volunteer public committee member.
