SAN LORENZO VALLEY WATER DISTRICT BOARD OF DIRECTOR BILL SMALLMAN RESIGNS FROM THE BOARD

July 19, 2019 - Boulder Creek, CA - The San Lorenzo Valley Water District (SLVWD) has announced that Board of Director Bill Smallman has resigned from the Board effective Wednesday July 17, 2019.

Bill was first elected to the Board in December 2016 after previously serving on the Board of the Lompico County Water District before its annexation and merger with SLVWD. During his time on the Board he was dedicated to the protection and health of the District's Watershed Property and the entire San Lorenzo Valley. His knowledge of construction was invaluable to the Engineering Committee and the Board.

The Board of Directors will address this vacancy at the upcoming July 23, 2019 Board meeting in accordance with Government Code §1780. The meeting will be held at 13050 Highway 9, Boulder Creek California 6:30 PM.
